Greetings;

Welcome to our school third term of academic year 2023/2024.

Please take time to read this newsletter as it highlights all the important information you need for a smooth run of term III

Special Welcome

I would like to thank you new parents and learners who joined the Nest International family this term, we want to assure you that you have joined the right family with right teachers, learners and parents. You are warmly welcome.

New staff

I would like to introduce to you new member of staff who have joined us this term and has been assigned responsibilities as it is highlighted. Ms. Emma Damas Shayo is an assistant teacher in KG 3 and will be in the school van. Again, we thank Mr. Nobert who served learners with us at Nest International school. He is not with us for a while he is on sabbatical leave. We appreciate his time with us and we wish him all the best.

School Calendar

We once again remind you to check the school calendar for it is the road map of the school's indoors and outdoors activities. The calendar should be considered as a guide to enable both the school and parents plan accordingly. We intend to show the dates as indicated but should there be any additional and/ or alterations the changes shall be communicated in good time.

School Planner

The school planner is the official communication channel between parents and school. Any matter that need to be promptly addressed should be written in the diary. Parents are also required to check the school planners on daily basis for any information that may be sent by the class Manager.

Uniforms timetable

All learners are required to wear their full school uniform on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. On Friday the learners should wear their sport uniforms. Parents should take part to ensure that their children report to school tidy and in clean school clothes. Please make sure that all your child's belongings including PE kits are clearly labelled to ensure promptly return of lost property.
